LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the dignified and intellectual Senior Class of 1934 do bequeath with sorrow (?) and regret, the following articles:

Item I: To the Juniors:

1. All the Senior privileges they can get out of Supt. Bundy.
2. The torture cells, number one and two, which we now occupy.
3. "The News-Flash," to write up any one they please.
4. The authority to pester Mr. Bundy as much as we did Mr. Hartsell.
5. The dignity of the class of '34.
6. Our places in the hearts of the faculty.

Item II: To the Sophomores:

1. Our Sophomore-know-it-all laziness.
2. The honor of having the numerals on the tank, if they can climb that high.

Item III: To the Freshmen:

1. We wish to leave to the freshmen class any overlooked cuds of gum we may have left adhering to the underside of desks, banisters, assembly seats, or any other likely or unlikely places.

Item IV: To the individuals specified:

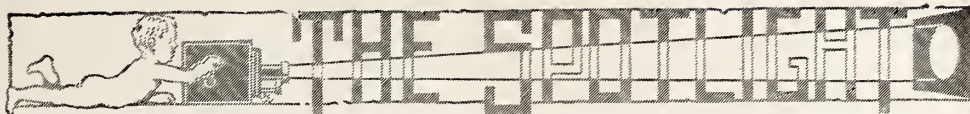

1. Fred Merritt and Sanford Aydlett to two unlucky Juniors, their Annual jobs.
2. Marion Savin his dynamic vocabulary to any member of the faculty who is capable of using it.
3. Retha Needham to some fortunate Junior the title of "the prettiest girl" in the Senior Class.
4. Frances Wells and Eleanor Raper to any ten Juniors, their non-stop talking record.
5. Woody Foreman, his athletic ability to Edward Hughes.
6. Shell Scott to the Frisby brothers, his privilege of wisecracking the faculty.
7. The Senior Class to Miss Parker, all the good-looking Junior boys.
8. Manson Meekins his dialect, to Bill Carhart.
9. Harold Overman, his intellectual ability to "Chick" West.

In witness whereof, we, the class of 1934, the testators, do hereby affix our hands and seals this sixteenth day of May, Anno Domini, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four.

RETHA NEEDHAM
FRED MERRITT,
NORMAN DAVIS,

Testators.

PROPHECY

I listened to a brilliant radio program which brought to my mind a vision, not of the past, but of the future. I saw clearly the members of the class of '34 at their various vocations.

Marion Savin, world famous architect, was sitting at a carved mahogany desk drawing up the plans for another skyscraper. He keeps those under him running to the dictionary. Pretty, auburn-haired Allie Mae Jennings is his private secretary. Although immaculate and more stylish than ever, she still knows her old friends.

Shelton Scott, who was the excellent manager of the E. C. H. S. football team, is also successful at Columbia University, for he knows well the feelings of the boys. Claiborne Nixon, captain of the home team, is now coaching at Princeton. Lockwood Lassiter, stellar E. C. H. S. quarterback, has attained the All-American. William Foreman, a three letter man of E. C. H. S., is Duke's second man for All-American honors. In later life Woody will follow in his father's footsteps by becoming manager of some large lumber mill.

Frances Lister is head of a millinery shop on Main Street. Her gracious assistants are Hazel Stokes, Mary L. Seymour and Alma Litchfield.

Fascinating Miriam Sherlock and Retha Needham are starring in "Angels on Earth" with cheerful Alton Cohoon and sentimental Thomas McKimmey.

Garland Bowden, a renowned lawyer, and the well-known cartoonists, Jack Weeks and Edward Tillitt, are spending their vacations abroad.

Curly headed Manson Meekins and his collaborator, Fred Merritt, are doing research work in Egypt.

Conservative Edward Ganderson has recently open an "S" shop on Fifth Avenue. His mannequins are alluring Margaret Bateman, winsome Marie Davis, petite Helon Lassiter, attractive Mardell Swain, and charming Marjorie Davis.

Vivacious Myra Hopkins and Nancy Hall Sawyer are kindergarten teachers in New York City.

Beryl Hobbs and Roger Shannonhouse, professional dancers, have opened an exclusive night club in Chicago. Among others, they have in their orchestra talented Ann Elizabeth Spence, Ruth Benton, Abbott Bailey, Norman Davis and James Cooper.

Energetic Carolyn Aydlett now has a private hospital in Raleigh. Competent Annie Wood Provo is the Superintendent of Hospital and Mary Elizabeth Hill is the Superintendent of Nurses.

Sedate Helen Whitehurst, Sarah Tarkington and Helen Reichle are now teaching in Elizabeth City High School with Harold Overman as Superintendent of the schools. His ready wit has made him popular with both the faculty and students.

Genial Edward Bray and scholarly Ruth Sanderlin have become celebrated singers. Ed's fan mail has grown so bulky that his efficient secretary, Estelle Cox, is constantly busy.

The Savings Bank has reopened with Winfred Dail as president, Columbus Forbes as cashier, Fred Drinkwater as teller, Marion Ballance as stenographer and Margaret Bailey as bookkeeper. Edwin Hastings, Julian Hooper, Walter Lewis, William Midgett and Raymond Rhodes are all on the board of directors.

Good-looking James Provo operates the Bluebird Bus Line. His capable drivers are John Miller, David Hill and Wilbur Evans.

Changeable Clarence Culpepper has taken over his father's automobile business; delightful Alma Davis is his bookkeeper, and his Melvin Wright his star salesman.

Energetic Annie Brown and Margaret Sawyer operate a beauty salon; they are very successful.

Grace Gaskins and Elizabeth Freeman have made a non-stop flight across the United States, beating all previous records.

Sanford Aydlett is owner of the Aydlett Products Company. He is still partial to green suits.

Virginia Newbern and Katherine Greenleaf are sob sisters for the Washington Herald.

Joe Stokes, of the school-girl complexion, now is manager of one of Pender's stores. Slender Julian Cofield is his trusted helper.

Volatile Sybil Ambrose has opened a candy kitchen and has as her qualified assistants Dorothy Knight, Mary Godfrey and Addie Davis.

Margaret Davis, Eleanor Raper and Sarah Payne are couteous clerks in McCabe and Grice.

Frances Wells is the first woman president of the United States. The able members of her cabinet are Delbert Jackson, Sectary of War; Elliott Morgan, Secretary of State; Andrews White, Secretary of the Treasury; Wilson Owens, Secretary of the Navy; Ida Brock, Secretary of Commerce; John Griffin, Secretary of Interior; Henry Gregory, Secretary of Agriculture; Emma Lee Simpson, Postmaster General; Hugh Deans, Secretary of Labor and Joshua Munden, Attorney-General.

A sudden storm came up, and as there was so much static, my vision ended and I turned the radio off.

MARTHA SPRUILL.

The News-Flash

The Senior Class-sponsored official news organ of E. C. H. S. known as "The News-Flash" was created from an embryo stage immediately after mid-term exams, January, 1934. It boasted of six out-of-state subscribers including one in Escalante, Utah, besides 200 local subscribers and the intra-state ones.

"The News-Flash" was a weekly paper, printed mimeographically and in tabloid form; it consisted of five pages, on the average, and it was found to be full of sane, satirical and other elements necessary for the success of a school paper.

This school project has proven to be a liquidative asset in connection with the financing of this year's annual and is considered not only a financial success but a literal financial triumph.

The staff of this paper dedicate this year's school paper, "The News-Flash," to our faculty advisor, Miss Matilda Etheridge, for whose untiring efforts and splendid spirit of co-operation we feel deeply indebted; and we feel that she has, to a great extent, made this paper what it was during its run of only four months.

To Our Football Team

These insignificant paragraphs have been inserted herein in an attempt to convey to the mind of the reader some small portion of the feeling of pride and affection which we, the student body of E. C. H. S., have toward our football team.

These boys, under the assiduous supervision of Coach Hunsucker, have put forth, in the form of plain hard work, their best efforts toward winning each game in its turn, and, as a result have won this year the North Carolina state championship, thus heaping fame and glory upon the school.

We shall always feel that we owe to Coach Hunsucker and the boys a debt of gratitude, born from the sacrifices which they have made for the good of our own Elizabeth City High School.
